Dear Madam:

Mr. W. Gedney Beatty, one of the members of the Council of this Society, has told me that in calling upon you some time ago, you showed him several Greek coins, including a Syracusan dekadrachm. Some of these pieces are of great rarity, and all of them have much interest for our Society.

May I respectfully ask whether you would consider loaning these coins to our Society for a brief period? We should like to study them and to compare them with similar pieces of which we have a record. I trust that your decision will be a favorable one.

Very respectfully yours,
